First lecture: 03.11.2020

Description:

The course is a compulsory module for M.Sc. students. The lecture provides an up-to-date introduction to econometric methods for the analysis of cross-section and panel data. The lecture will be accompanied by methodological and empirical exercise sessions. The lecture will be held online. Details are available on the Moodle course page.

We offer a three-day preparatory course on statistics/econometrics before the beginning of the term. The course covers basic concepts of statistics and probability theory as well as matrix algebra.

Content:

- 1. The Linear Regression Model
- 2. Instrumental Variables Regression
- 3. Models for Panel Data
- 4. Experiments and Quasi-Experiments
- 5. Microeconometrics
- 6. Carrying Out an Empirical Project

Course language: English

Transcript of records:

Your grade for this course will be determined in a final exam but you can earn extra credit by completing homework assignments.
