Experience Academic programmes and research opportunities in Asia: The Hong Kong PhD Fellowship Scheme

The Research Grants Council of the University Grants Committee, Hong Kong, has just established the Hong Kong PhD Fellowship Scheme in 2009. The Scheme aims to connect top international research postgraduate students and Hong Kong's world-class research institutions.

The Fellowship provides a monthly stipend of HK$20,000 (approximately US$2,600) and a conference and research related travel allowance of HK$10,000 (approximately US$1,300) per year for the awardees for up to three years. 135 PhD Fellowships will be awarded for the 2012/13 academic year.

A delegation, comprising the Chairman of the Research Grants Council and representatives of Hong Kong institutions, will visit Heidelberg University on October 11 and present the Scheme as well as the PhD programmes offered by the higher education institutions in Hong Kong to interested students.

If you are interested in learning more about the application process, admission requirements, selection criteria, specific programmes etc. please come and meet the representatives of the Research Grants Council and universities on
