

GRANTS FOR THE PUBLICATION OF DISSERTATIONS

Call for Applications within the Initiative for Excellence

The University of Heidelberg Graduate Academy is pleased to announce funding support for the publication of high quality doctoral dissertations that are not suited for electronic publication. Publication grants of up to a maximum of 3 000 € can be awarded to applicants with above-average qualifications who have completed their doctoral training within the last 12 months at the University of Heidelberg and received a final grade of summa cum laude, Mit Auszeichnung, or magna cum laude (only in special cases) on their dissertation.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: OCTOBER 15th, 2011

PLANNED NOTIFICATION OF AWARDS DECISIONS: MID DECEMBER 2011

Please read through the FAQs before applying for a grant: FAQs

Due to time constraints, questions dealt with in the FAQs will not be answered again by telephone or email.

Please submit the following application documents:

1. A letter of intent, stating the reasons for your application as well as an explanation of why your dissertation is not suited for electronic publication
2. A summary of your dissertation (max. 5 pages)
3. A curriculum vitae in table form (max. 2 pages)
4. A copy of the official certificate of your successful completion of the Rigorosum/Disputation including the final grade
5. Price quotations from two publishers and an explanation of your choice of publishers

Please submit your application to the Dean's Office of the Faculty in which you were registered as a doctoral student. Applications must be submitted in paper and electronic form (a single PDF-file on CD).

Please note that the grant funds can be paid out only within the calendar year 2012. This means that successful applicants will be required to submit proof of the publication of their dissertation to the Graduate Academy at the latest by the end of October 2012.

Please do not hesitate to contact our office if you have any questions that are not answered in the FAQs.
