

Partiality and Embeddedness in Socratic Ethics

International workshop at the Department of Philosophy, University of Heidelberg

Organized by Philipp Brüllmann, Ian Campbell and Tue Søvsø

Programme

Date: 29-30 November 2024

Venue: Neue Universität, Hörsaal 02, Grabengasse 3-5, 69117 Heidelberg

Friday, November 29

13.30-13.45: Welcome

13.45-14.55: “Loving the Good as One’s Own”

Dashan Xu, KU Leuven

Response: Sophie Speicher (Heidelberg)

14.55-16.05: “Socrates on the normativity of taxis”

David Machek, UC Louvain

Response: Philipp Brüllmann (Heidelberg)

16.05-16.30: Coffee Break

16.30-17.40: “The Socratic Philosophies and the Unity of Virtue”

Claudia Marsico, University of Buenos Aires

Response: Ian Campbell (Heidelberg)

17.40-18.30: Roundtable: “Where does partiality enter the picture?” (Philipp Brüllmann)

19.15: Dinner

Saturday, November 30

9.30-10.40: “Xenophon’s Socrates on Philia in Memorabilia 2”

Joseph Bjelde, HU Berlin

Response: Don Morrison (Rice University)

10.40-11.00: Coffee Break

11.00-12.10: “The Ethics of Care (epimeleia) in Xenophon’s Socratic Works”

Vladimir Zuckermann, University of Copenhagen

Response: Fabian Staffel (Heidelberg)

12.00-13.30: Lunch

13.30-14.40: “Ruling Animals and Ruling Humans: The Significance of Care (epimeleia) in Plato’s Statesman 258b-268b”

Leo Catana, University of Copenhagen

Response: Hermann Crüwell (Wien)

14.40-15.50: “A penthouse for philosophers: Plato on partiality in the afterlife”

Chloe Balla, University of Crete

Response: Alesia Preite (Heidelberg)

15.50-16.10: Coffee Break

16.10-17.20: “Embarrassment as a method in the Socratics”

Santiago Chame, LMU Munich

Response: Allison Piñeros Glascock (Georgia State University / Heidelberg)

17.20-18.10: Roundtable: “Where does embeddedness enter the picture?” (Ian Campbell & Tue Søvsø)

19.00: Conference Dinner