Do you have a passion for languages? Are you ready to start an international career in a multicultural and diverse team? If so, read on.

The European institutions are seeking translators (grade AD 5) for Danish (DA), Greek (EL), English (EN), Spanish (ES), French (FR), Italian (IT), Maltese (MT), and Dutch (NL). This notice covers eight competitions and candidates may only apply for one of them.

As a translator, your primary role is to deliver high-quality translations and provide linguistic services that help the institution, body, or agency achieve its mission. Your tasks may include translating from at least two source languages into the target language, revising translations, editing, addressing linguistic quality issues, conducting terminology research, supporting training initiatives, and contributing to the development of IT tools. The often complex texts typically cover political, legal, economic, financial, scientific, and technical subjects related to the EU's activities. You may also work on localising communication materials or subtitling. These duties require extensive use of specialised IT tools.

To apply, you must meet the following requirements:

- Be an EU national and enjoy the full rights of an EU citizen.
- Have completed university studies of at least three years, attested by a diploma awarded by 10 April 2025. No professional experience is required.
- Have knowledge of at least three of the 24 official EU languages, as indicated in the table below.

Do you have what it takes?

Specific conditions – languages:
Competition	Language 1 – the language of the competition	Language 2	Language 3
